

PUBWEST

PubWest, the leading trade association of small- and medium-sized book publishers, has announced the opening of the 2022 PubWest Book Design Awards competition.

PubWest Book Design Awards were developed to recognize superior design and outstanding production quality of books throughout North America. As we celebrate our 38th annual awards, PubWest invites you to submit your 2022 titles.

Brad Farmer, CEO at Gibbs Smith, tells us, "As part of an employee-owned benefit corporation at Gibbs Smith Books, we recognize that books are more than an assembly-line product. They should also add color and craft to our shelves and tables. We select authors, photographers, illustrators, and designers that share that goal and want to add beauty to the world through books. We were so pleased that the PubWest Design Awards committee recognized these efforts and now allow us to celebrate the many, many people who worked together to build this book into an award winner."

And here is more praise for our annual awards, "As an emerging independent press, it is an honor to quickly be recognized with three PubWest Design awards for our outstanding lifestyle, gift, and children's titles. The Collective Book Studio's publishing philosophy has always been rooted in sustaining the art of the book, and I appreciate that organizations like PubWest continue to uphold this tradition too."—Angela Engel, Publisher & Founder, The Collective Book Studio
